Welcome

Welcome to the National NAIDOC
Week Brand Guidelines.

NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia each July, celebrating the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. It is a great opportunity for all Australians to participate in a range of activities and support their local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

This document contains everything you need to know about how the National NAIDOC Week brand should be used for events, social media, communications, promotions, and other activities.

The National NAIDOC Committee thank you for your support. We hope you enjoy getting to know our brand better!

Typography

Always aim for contrast across all typographic hierarchies. All type is to be set in Poppins.

Headline

Headlines are to be set in Poppins bold.

Sub-headline

Sub-headlines can be set either in bold or regular depending on the application. They are to be regular if sitting directly under a headline, and bold when they appear away from a headline.

Content sub-headline

Content sub-headlines are to be set in bold at the same text size as the body copy it sits with.

Body copy

Body copy is to be set in Poppins regular. At a minimum the text size is to be 9pt with 14pt leading and -7 tracking.

Important information

Important information can be styled in different ways to help differentiate it from other information. Using italics and bold italics are preferred.

Secondary Logo

This year's theme celebrates not only the achievements of the past but the bright future ahead, empowered by the strength of our young leaders, the vision of our communities, and the legacy of our ancestors.

The theme celebrates a movement that endures, grows, and evolves – driven by the unwavering strength of our communities, the shared vision of our people, and the enduring legacy we pass on to those who will shape our future.

Together, we walk forward, honoring where we've come from and looking boldly to the next generation who will carry NAIDOC and their communities into the future.
